Doc. dr. sc. HANZI PREDANIĆ-GAŠPARAC
1932. – 2017.

S tugom smo se oprostile i odali počast poštovanoj učiteljici, dugogodišnjoj suradnici, kolegici i dragoj prijateljici doc. dr. sc. Hanzi Predanić-Gašparac, umirovljenoj nastavnici Stomatološkog fakulteta Sveučilišta u Zagrebu.

Doc. dr. sc. Hanzi Predanić-Gašparac rođena je 1. rujna 1932. godine u Zagrebu. Nakon ispita zrelosti u Klasičnoj gimnaziji upisala se na Odontološki odsjek Medicinskog fakulteta Sveučilišta u Zagrebu gdje je i diplomirala 1960.

Nakon kraćeg rada u Domu zdravlja Maksimir, 1. prosinca 1960. izabrana je za asistenticu u Zavodu za stomatološku protetiku SFZG-a u Zagrebu. Do umirovljenja 1997. godine predavala je i organizirala teorijsku, praktičnu i kliničku nastavu studentima diplomskog i poslijediplomskog studija, a djelovala je istodobno i u mnogim segmentima rada fakulteta i Klinike za stomatologiju KBC-a Zagreb.

Sudjelovala je u pojedinim segmentima nastave na Medicinskom fakultetu Sveučilišta u Rijeci, a predavala je i fiksnu protetiku u Zdravstveno-obrazovnom centru za zubne tehničare. Specijalistički ispit iz stomatološke protetike položila je 1973., a naziv primarius stekla je 1984. Usavršavala se u inozemstvu: u Tübingenu, Lihtenštajnu, Beču, Grazu i Hannoveru.

Disertaciju pod nazivom: Određivanje otpornosti na trošenje fiksno-protetskih materijala – nemetala u usporedbi s prirodnim zubima obranila je 27. travnja 1987., nakon čega je 1988. izabrana u znanstveno-nastavno zvanje docenta.

Godine 1991. imenovana je pomoćnicom dekana i koordinatoricom za nastavu u obrazovnom programu Viši zubni tehničar. Od 1987. do kraja akademske godine 1994./95. obnašala je dužnost predstojnice Zavoda za fiksnu protetiku.

Doc.dr.sc. Hanzi Predanić-Gašparac bila je zaljubljenica struke, posebice protetike u kojoj je svojim znanjem, marljivošću i neizmjernim iskustvom ostavila neizbrisiv trag u hrvatskoj stomatologiji. Naraštajima studenata, specijalizanata i kolegama ostaje sjećanje na docenticu Predanić-Gašparac kao na vrsnu nastavnicu i stručnjakinju, ali prije svega na dragu kolegicu i prijateljicu.

Blago počivala u miru!

prof.dr.sc. Dragutin Komar
Predstojnik Zavoda za fiksnu protetiku

Assistant professor HANZI PREDANIĆ-GAŠPARAC
1932 – 2017

It is with sadness that we parted and gave tribute to our esteemed teacher, long-time collaborator, colleague and dear friend, doc. dr. sc. Hanzi Predanić-Gašparac, a retired teacher of the School of Dental Medicine University of Zagreb.

Assistant professor Hanzi Predanić-Gašparac was born in Zagreb (Croatia) on September 1 1932. After graduation from the Classical gymnasium in Zagreb, she enrolled the Odontological department of the School of Medicine, where she graduated in 1960.

After a short working experience in Maksimir Health Center, she was elected an assistant at the Department of Prosthodontics of the School of Dental Medicine in Zagreb. Until retirement in 1997, she participated and organized theoretical, practical and clinical education of the undergraduate and postgraduate students, working at the same time in many segments of the School and the Dental Clinic of the Clinical Hospital Center Zagreb.

She was an active teacher at the School of Medicine in Rijeka, and also in the education of dental technicians, as the main teacher for fixed prosthodontics. She became a specialist of prosthodontics in 1973, and the title of primarius in 1984. Her further education followed in Tübingen, Liechtenstein, Vienna, Graz and Hannover.

Her PhD thesis, titled "Determination of the resistance to wear of fixed prosthetic materials – non-metals in comparison to natural dentition" was accepted on April 27 1987. In 1988 she was elected assistant professor.

In 1991 she was elected assistant of the dean and coordinator for the education of master dental technicians. From 1987 until the end of the academic year 1994/1995 she was the head of the Department of Fixed Prosthodontics of the School of Dental Medicine.

Doc. dr. sc. Hanzi Predanić-Gašparac was an enthusiast of the profession, especially prosthodontics, in which her knowledge, diligence and vast experience left an indelible imprint in the Croatian dentistry. For generations of students, undergraduate and postgraduate, and numerous colleagues, her memory remains, for she was an excellent teacher and professional, a dear colleague and a friend.

May she rest in peace!
